

Christ's Message of Redemption

Functions - Within the Spiritual Body

President's Statement

BibleWay Publishing is a non-profit Bible ministry focusing on the websites and digital books of the International Bible Knowledge Institute (IBKI). The objective of IBKI is to make Bible lessons available to anyone interested in learning and teaching God's will.

We recommend that you study your Bible to determine the accuracy of what is stated in these lessons or those from any other source. Opinions often find their way into audio, digital, video, printed lessons, Bible commentaries; and, in the teachings of preachers, ministers, pastors, priests, and rabbis.

The comments presented in the International Bible Knowledge Institute's lessons are the opinions of the authors or compilers. You should always verify the comments, opinions, and teachings of all Bible material since it is YOUR responsibility to seek, know and do the will of God.

To check the truth of any teaching, read different Bible translations, and consult Bible dictionaries and lexicons to learn the meaning of unfamiliar words or phrases.

Be careful with dictionary definitions, as the meaning of words and phrases changes over time. Dictionaries give the meaning of words and phrases from the original language to current usage, which often differ in meaning. Also, multiple Greek words can be translated into one English word, which can distort the original meaning. For Example, in Ephesians 4 the word "and" in apostles and prophets was translated from the Greek word dé meaning to separate apostles from prophets, two functions. Whereas "and" in pastors and teachers was translated from the Greek word kai meaning to connect pastors with teachers, one function.

May you allow God to guide you in your study of His Holy Word, the Bible.

BibleWay Publishing grants permission to download and reproduce for non-commercial purposes their lessons in their entirety. Feel free to share but not change lessons, sell or charge for them.

All who have obeyed from the heart the message of reconciliation have put on Christ and have

1. died to sin
2. been buried or immersed in water (baptism)
3. been raised a new being
4. been added to the Body of Christ and are in Him, in Christ

As disciples of Christ, we constitute a spiritual body and just like the human body there are many functions the body must perform if it is to grow. All activity must be functioning in unity for the body to be effective and efficient, therefore all parts of the body do not do the same thing. "For as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same function so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another." (Romans 12:4-5)

Paul, while in prison, provided insight into spiritual gifts when he wrote "I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called, with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift." (Ephesians 4:1-6)

"And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry [serving (rd)], for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; that we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him who is the head — Christ — from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying of itself in love." (Ephesians 4:9-16)

Perhaps the most crucial functions are never seen while others are always seen.

The spiritual body's functions listed below are from Romans 12:6-8:

- Prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith
- Service or ministry, let us use it in our serving or ministering
- He who teaches, in teaching
- He who exhorts, in exhortation
- He who gives or contributes, with liberality
- He who leads, with diligence
- Perform acts of mercy with cheerfulness

In performing these activities, we must continue to live a life pleasing to God. Romans 12 tells us how we are to live before God:

- Be genuine in Love.
- Hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good.
- Love one another with brotherly affection.
- Outdo one another in showing honor.
- Never lag in zeal, be aglow [fervent] with the Spirit, and serve the Lord.

- Rejoice in your hope, be patient in tribulation, and be constant in prayer.
- Contribute to the needs of the saints, practice hospitality [take care of needs].
- Speak well of those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.
- Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep • Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty.
- Associate with the lowly.
- Never be conceited.
- Repay no one evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all.
- If possible, so far as it depends upon you, live peaceably with all.
- Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God.
- Do good things to your enemy for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head.

From Ephesians 4:11-13 we see that in order to prepare His people for works of service to build up the body so it could mature and reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God He gave some to be: ° apostles

- ° prophets
- ° evangelists
- ° teaching pastors, shepherds, bishops or overseeing watchmen

Therefore, in the Body of Christ, we do not all perform the same functions but become servants, doing whatever needs to be done and give honor to everyone not just to those who have a more public function.
